ABSTRACT

The "Colorado Education Directory" is published annually as a service to schools, libraries, and other members of the educational community. All information within each section is arranged alphabetically. Thirteen sections include: 1) Colorado State Department of Education (CDE) staff and telephone numbers; 2) State Advisory Committees (that advise CDE activities); 3) school districts/buildings and personnel, along with a school district map; 4) charter schools; 5) district calendars (listing school opening and closing dates); 6) Boards of Cooperative (Educational) Services (BOCES) and member districts; 7) regional library service system offices; 8) academic libraries; 9) institutional libraries; 10) public libraries; 11) special libraries; 12) institutions of higher education and independent legislated vocational schools; and 13) educational groups and professional organizations. Maps of the Colorado Congressional District and area codes and Colorado public education facts are also included. (Contains six indexes covering: public school buildings, school districts, cities and school districts, libraries, general, and names of all persons listed in directory.) (AEF)

COLORADO 1998 Teacher of the Year

The Colorado Teacher of the Year program is our state's oldest and most prestigious program recognizing teaching excellence. The program highlights the contributions of one outstanding teacher every year, and in doing so, acknowledges what every Coloradan knows: the single critical factor in an excellent education is an excellent teacher.

Once selected, the Colorado Teacher of the Year automatically becomes our state's nominee for the National Teacher of the Year competition, sponsored by the Council of Chief State School Officers and Scholastic Inc. Beyond this, the Colorado Teacher of the Year acts as an education ambassador to the education, business, and other communities of Colorado.

The 1999 Teacher of the Year will be named at an honors banquet in December 1998. The Colorado Department of Education salutes this remarkable individual.
